Institut du Bosphore and ECFR presented « What Does Turkey Think? »

Institut du Bosphore and European Council on Foreign Relations (ECFR) organized a breakfast debate on 28 June 2011 in Paris on the occasion of the presentation of the publication « What Does Turkey Think? ». The study published by ECFR is a collection of nine essays by Turkish experts and political figures from different backgrounds, edited by Dimitar Bechev.

With the participation of Serap Atan, director of Institut du Bosphore and Thomas Klau, editorial director and head of the Paris Office of ECFR, the debate took place around Dimitar Bechev, senior policy fellow and head of ECFR's office in Sofia and Dorothee Schmid, head of the Turkish studies programme in Ifri.
